JUDICIAL DECISION.

In Running Accounts the Balance is the Debt.

A unanimous opinion of the Supreme Court, by Justice Frear, has been rendered on the appeal of plaintiff in the suit of L. H. Dee vs. J. F. Morgan, from the judgment of the Circuit Court, contrary to the verdict of a jury. Dee sold out his interest in a certain business to his partner, Morgan, who agreed to pay all outstanding liabilities and debts of the business. Macfarlane & Co. owed the partnership $217.75, and the partnership owed Macfarlane & Co. $206.95, on mutual accounts. Dee, claiming the debt due the firm and maintaining that Morgan should pay the amount due by the firm, tried to collect the $217.75. Macfarlane & Co. would only pay him the balance of $10.80, and Dee settled at that with an exchange of receipts under protest. He brought this action against Morgan for the $206.95. The Circuit Judge charged the jury that upon a running account with mutual debits and credits the balance only was the debt. The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff, however, whereupon the Court, upon a motion to that effect by defendant's counsel, set aside the verdict and ordered judgment non obstante verdicto, and the question on which the plaintiff appealed was whether this was error. The Supreme Court finds there was no error and overrules the exceptions. It is decided that: "Judgment non obstante verdicto may, under our practice, be entered for the defendant as well as for the plaintiff, and on the evidence as well as the pleadings, where the material facts are undisputed. In mutual accounts the balance only is the debt due." G. A. Davis for plaintiff; C. Brown for defendant.

Citizens Attention.

These are days of considerable anxiety and perplexity to all who have possessions or other interests in the Republic of Hawaii, and it is time that our citizens came to a mutual understanding on several important issues. The prospects for Annexation appear at present vague and indistinct, and our destiny cannot be foretold with certainty. There are those, also, who still fondly cling to the hope of a return to the old order of things, and who cannot be persuaded otherwise, yet this outlook appears far more hazy than that of Annexation even to the most hopeful disciples of the Monarchy. But, fortunately, in the midst of all this uncertainty there is solace in the fact that Buffalo Beer has come to stay and that patrons of all sorts and opinions may equally share the benefits of its invigorating and sustaining properties. We are moreover assured that this favorite brew will continue to be dispensed as heretofore at the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan Saloons.

Police Court Items.

In the police court this morning the larceny case of Sol. Mahiki was postponed to tomorrow; the embezzlement charge against D. K. Brown to the 24th.

Waha was fined $2 and costs for driving without a light, and P. Voeller $3 and costs for assault and battery on F. Fernandes.

Kaikanaka pleaded guilty of threatening his wahine and had his sentence suspended till moved on.

Mika, charged with malicious injury and mischief, in pulling a lot of taro valued at $10 and said to belong to Yau Poon, was tried and the case dismissed after hearing the evidence of the prosecution.

Trouble on the Semantha.

British Vice-Consul T. Rain Walker is investigating the condition of affairs on the big ship Semantha, which is called on the waterfront a "blue nose." Five of the men are accused by the mate with threatening to rip him open, while the men allege abuse, ill-treatment and poor food supplies on the part of the officers. As a matter of fact their breakfast, as reported to the BULLETIN, consisted this morning of coffee and hard tack alone. This is considered a poor foundation for a hard day's work of discharging ballast, especially in a country where beef and potatoes are as plentiful and as cheap as they are here.
